

Tuesday, February 6, 2007, 6PM to 9PM
At the Central Oregon Environmental Center
16 NW Kansas Street, near McMenamins in downtown Bend

Real Survival Strategies

Four Basic Responsibilities, the Ten Essential Systems

Staying Found in the Backcountry

with Map, Compass and GPS – Together

This Class includes a 13 page handout covering clothing layers and what light gear to carry into the backcountry of Oregon and how to use your inexpensive GPS to find your exact position with the UTM Grid on free USFS Winter Maps

Sponsors:
Oregon State Snowmobile Association and
Robert Speik of www.TraditionalMountaineering.org

This is a free class; Reservations are not required!
There are 60 seats. First come first served!
For more information call Bob Speik at 541-385-0445